

COLONEL FRECKLES

Colonel Freckles' life began in 1973 on a ranch in Midland, Texas. The blaze-faced stallion was the son of Jewel's Leo Bars out of Christy Jay by Rey Jay. His breeder was Marion Flynt.

The stallion first received recognition at the 1976 National Cutting Horse Association Futurity. At the time, Bob McLeod was his owner and Olan Hightower rode the sorrel. Hightower knew that the only way they were going to win the finals that year was to pick three feisty cows out of the herd. The tactic worked. Colonel Freckles won the championship, putting him in the books as a great athlete.

At the 1976 NCHA Futurity, Lou and Wanda Waters watched Colonel Freckles and fell in love with him. They bred 24 mares to the stallion before purchasing him in 1983. He became the centerpiece of their breeding facility in Fulshear, Texas.

In 1981, 36 of Colonel Freckles' progeny entered the NCHA Futurity. Seven qualified for the semifinals and four made it to the finals, including Futurity champion Colonel Lil. Other notable offspring of Colonel Freckles included 1988 NCHA Futurity Reserve Champion Cols Lil Pepper, finalist Colonel Flip and Super Stakes reserve champion Colonel Leo Bar.

Colonel Freckles' offspring also competed well in National Reining Horse Association and National Reined Cow Horse Association events. Freckles Top Brass, Freckle Kid and King Badger's Colonel were champions in NRHA Futurity and Derby events. In 1987, one of Colonel Freckles' sons, Nu Cash, won the NRCHA Snaffle Bit Futurity and went on to sire three other NRCHA Snaffle Bit Futurity winners.

The sorrel's 417 performing foals earned 2,719.5 AQHA points, 66 Registers of Merit and several AQHA Champion titles.

Colonel Freckles died in 1986. He was inducted into the American Quarter Horse Hall of Fame in 2004.

AQHA Hall of Fame Stallion -- Colonel Freckles

Colonel Freckles was in all ways the Ideal American Quarter Horse and A Horse For All Time. His bloodlines in a horse breeding program establish genetic value--the kind of value that is there years later when fads and promotions have faded away and only the record remains of champion horses that are able to produce champion horses.

Champion of the 1976 National Cutting Horse Futurity, Colonel Freckles has made a prodigious impact on the American Quarter Horse Association, the National Cutting Horse Association, the National Reining Horse Association, and the National Reined Cow Horse Association. Equistat records through 2002 show that in the disciplines of cutting, reining, and reined cow horse, 325 sons and daughters of Colonel Freckles have earned a total of $4,671,860--an average of $14,375 per offspring. As a Paternal and Maternal Grand sire in the same disciplines, 1,833 performers have won $14,010,314.

Lou Waters said "After I watched him win the NCHA Futurity and four years later watched a daughter from his first foal crop win the NCHA Futurity, I said, 'Man, that is the horse of all time!' After I owned him, I knew he was everything I ever hoped for. He was always a gentleman in the breeding barn and was a potent breeder. You could ride him anywhere anytime. He always stayed slick and shiny and got more beautiful every year."

Colonel Freckles was inducted into the AQHA Hall of Fame in 2004. Colonel Freckles remains on list after list of influential Quarter Horse sires. The $4,671,860 won by his own sons and daughters and the $14 million won by his grandsons and granddaughters in cutting, reining, and reined cow horse is a testament to the qualities that Colonel Freckles possessed and passed on -- cooperative spirit, intelligence, and athletic ability.

Colonel Freckles himself was the 1976 NCHA Futurity Open Champion. This 1976 Futurity was considered to be one of the toughest futurities in the history of the event, as the finalists included such exceptional cutting horses as Freckles Playboy, Doc's Oak, Doc's Remedy, Doc Athena, Montana Doc, and Tip It Sam.

In a stunning display of his prepotency, Colonel Freckles' first foal crop dominated the 1981 NCHA Futurity, with 36 entered, 7 qualifying for the Semi-Finals, and 4 making the Finals, including the 1981 NCHA Futurity Champion, Colonel Lil. This same first foal crop of 64 also produced four NCHA Super Stakes Finalists, including the Reserve Champion Colonel Leo Bar, and a NCHA Open Championship Top Ten winner and Co-Champion of the 1983 NCHA World Championship Finals, Freckles Fantasy.

The NRCHA has been influenced greatly by champion progeny of Colonel Freckles. Nu Cash, a son of Colonel Freckles, was NRCHA Snaffle Bit Futurity World Champion and sired the '95, '96, and '97 NRCHA Snaffle Bit World Champions. Nu Cash earned in excess of $100,000 in the NRCHA and NRHA and has been listed consistently as a leading sire of Working Cow Horses since 1995. One of his sons, The Nu Colonel, was 1995 NRCHA Snaffle Bit Futurity World Champion. A son of Colonel Freckles, Charter Colonel, captured the NRCHA Open Bridle Year-End Championship for four years and also four times netted the AQHA Best of America's Horse award. Typical of Colonel Freckles' influence on the Reined Cow Horse industry were the 1996 statistics: Colonel Freckles was the Number 1 Leading Paternal Grand sire and five of his sons were among the top 25 Leading Sires, including #1 Nu Cash and #3 Just Plain Colonel.

The NRHA has also felt the strong impact of Colonel Freckles' bloodlines. Among his sons that have been reining champions, Freckles Top Brass, won 1987 NRHA Futurity Open Novice Championship, King Badger's Colonel was the 1990 Limited Open Derby Champion and the 1991 Lazy E Limited Open Champion, and Freckle Kid was the 1990 Limited Open Reserve World Champion. A grandson, Nu Chex to Cash (by Nu Cash) was 2002 NRHA Intermediate and Limited Open World Champion as well as Reserve Non-Pro World Champion and Reserve Intermediate Non-Pro Champion.

When the U.S.E.T. held its Championship reining in Gladstone, New Jersey in 2001, a grandson of Colonel Freckles, Colonel Smokingun, better known as "Gunner" scored a 233 in the semifinals--unofficially the highest score ever marked in USET reining competition. Gunner went on to score 226.5 in the finals for the 2001 USET Gold medal. All told, Gunner has earned $119,069 in NRHA winnings, including the 1996 NRHA Open Futurity Reserve Championship.
