Doc Bar (STORY) <http://www.circle-s-quarter-horses.com/Legends24b.html>

Although not bred to be a cow horse, Doc Bar is best remembered as the horse which revolutionized the cutting horse industry. By Lightning Bar and out of Dandy Doll, Doc Bar was bred for speed, but only won $95 in four starts. Doc Bar wasn't a performance horse either but turned out to be a good halter horse and an excellent sire whose foal crops totally redefined the sport of cutting. Not only did his sons and daughters find success in the cutting arena, but they also found success in other performance events including working cow horse, reining and western pleasure. According to AQHA records, Doc Bar sired 485 foals which earned over 7,000 halter and performance points and 27 AQHA Champions. Doc Bar is credited with bringing a totally different look to cutting horses and for putting the sweeping motion into the cutting horses of today.

Doc Bar's legendary status lies in his ability to produce top cutting / performance horses, (not in his own show record). He is a leading sire of cutting winners over $9,102,255, and leading paternal grandsire of foals with earnings over $5,546,771.

AQHA Stallion Sire Record AQHA Champions - 27, World Champion Sire, CUTTING, WORKING COWHORSE, WP, Reserve World Ch. Sire, CUTTING, Top Ten World Show Sire, AQHA High Pt Halter Stallion, Superior Performance Sire

Sire of 31 AQHA Champions, Sire of NCHA Money-earners

Doc Bars ability to pass on his talent was apparent in the 1983 NCHA Futurity. 21 out of the 23 finalists all carried Doc Bar blood.

NOTE: Many of his get and grand-get competed only in NCHA events, not AQHA.

Doc Bar was humanly put down on July 20th at age 36.
